DEAN'S SPRING 2014 WELCOME

Hello and Happy New Year! My name is Susan J. Schurman. I am the Dean of the University College Community (UCC), Professor and Dean of the School of Management and Labor Relations (SMLR), as well as chairperson of the Undergraduate Professional Schools' Academic Oversight Committee for the New Brunswick Campus.

I want to offer a heartfelt Rutgers welcome to our new adult and nontraditional students and welcome back our continuing on and off-campus students.

UCC is aware that adult and nontraditional students must meet various responsibilities at home and at work while making extra efforts to reach their academic goals. We also know the value of successfully completing a college degree, not just in financial terms, but also in terms of personal development and social change.

Our ongoing goal is to support adult and nontraditional students because we know that they face significant non-academic responsibilities that make their college years very different from the traditional college experience. Our first task is to reach nontraditional students to make sure that they are informed of important developments, events, resources, services, dates, and major and minor programs that are available evenings, weekends, and online. UCC also helps guide nontraditional students to vital web information to enhance their experience at Rutgers University in a more effective and efficient manner. In addition, we advocate for nontraditional students inside the larger Rutgers University community by recommending policies and programs to meet their specific needs.

In the last few months, we have participated in adult recruitment, orientations, transition programs, and Veteran outreach initiatives, to name a few. We are especially proud of our administrative contributions to the formation of three degree-completion programs designed specifically for adult, nontraditional students: the School of Management and Labor Relations' Bachelor of Science \(BS\) degree in Labor & Employment Relations, and the Edward J. Bloustein School of Planning and Public Policy's Bachelor of Science \(BS\) degree in Public Health and Bachelor of Science \(BS\) degree in Public Policy. We anxiously await a fourth major for Fall 2014. Through our continued research, collaborations, and advocacy, we remain committed to developing and marketing adult-friendly programs to attract adult and nontraditional students. In fact, through our enhanced outreach via our Virtual Learning Community on sakai, myRutgers, UCC email lists, and direct mail, we are confident that we will identify more nontraditional students.

We are looking forward to our continued work with the Office of Veteran and Military Programs and Services to hold the 2014 Rutgers University Veterans Appreciation Dinner, which allows veterans to meet key administrators and fellow colleagues. We are also looking forward to hosting our annual graduation reception for adult/nontraditional students in the Class of 2014.

Our goal is to create a sense of community for those students who do not live on campus and who have significant responsibilities outside of academia.

Sincerely,

STUDY TIPS FOR NONTRADITIONAL STUDENTS

Developing study skills is a concern for working adults returning for a new semester. Experts say that people learn more by reflecting on what they are learning rather than by simply memorizing it. Try keeping an ongoing "reading journal" to record thoughts on the material and note questions it raises. When you go back to review your notes, you'll find new connections to current material and possibly new ways of looking at your subject. Click for source.
